

NAI Statistics 2018

The NAI is delighted to share with you its statistics of 2018! The NAI is the largest general arbitration institute in the Netherlands, a solid and innovative organisation with by far the most experience with and knowledge of different forms of ADR. The NAI is located in the centre of Rotterdam, the vivacious trading centre of the Netherlands with one of the largest ports of the world.

New cases received in 2018: 92

Number of pending cases on 31 December 2018: 86*

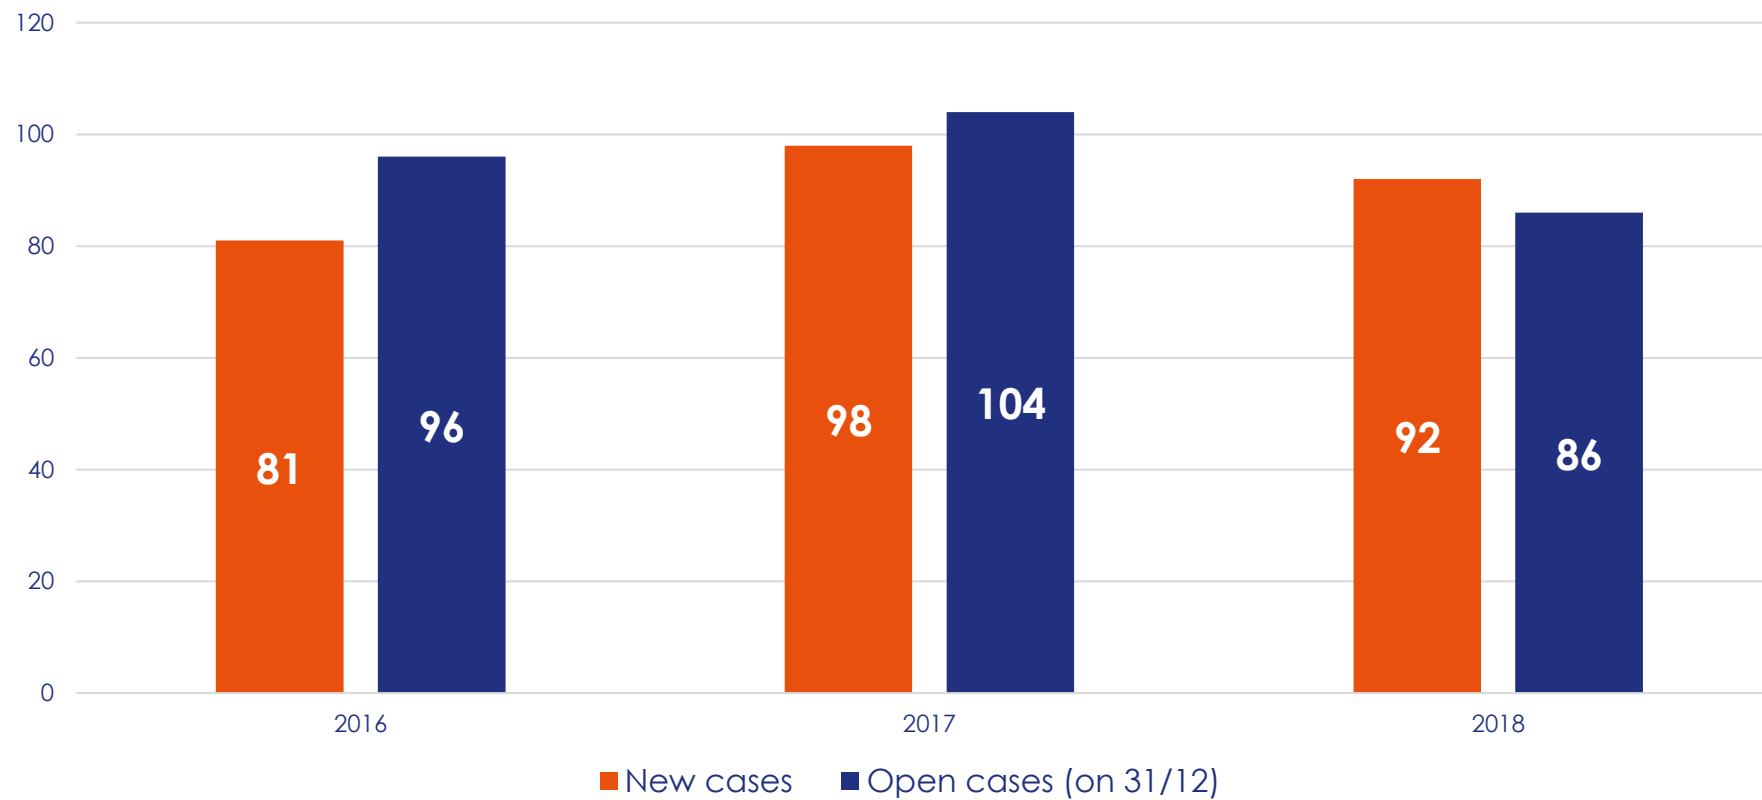

Total amount in dispute on 31 December 2018: € 3,281,157,439.39*

Maximum amount in dispute on 31 December 2018: € 2,500,000,000.00*

Minimum amount in dispute on 31 December 2018: € 5,630.34*

*includes all pending cases on 31 December 2018

New cases and open cases

In 2018, the NAI saw a continuation of the steady influx of new cases, with 92 new cases being registered and 99 total cases pending on the 31st of December 2018.

Finished proceedings in 2018

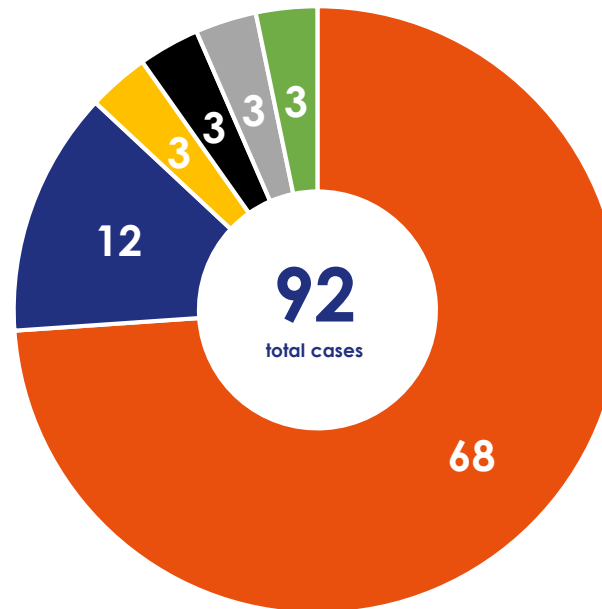

■ Final award ■ Terminated due to settlement ■ Terminated due to other reasons ■ Other

*includes all pending cases in 2018

In 2018, the NAI saw a healthy balance between awards rendered by arbitral tribunals (51%) and parties terminating proceedings due to reaching an amicable settlement (40%).

Types of procedures in 2018

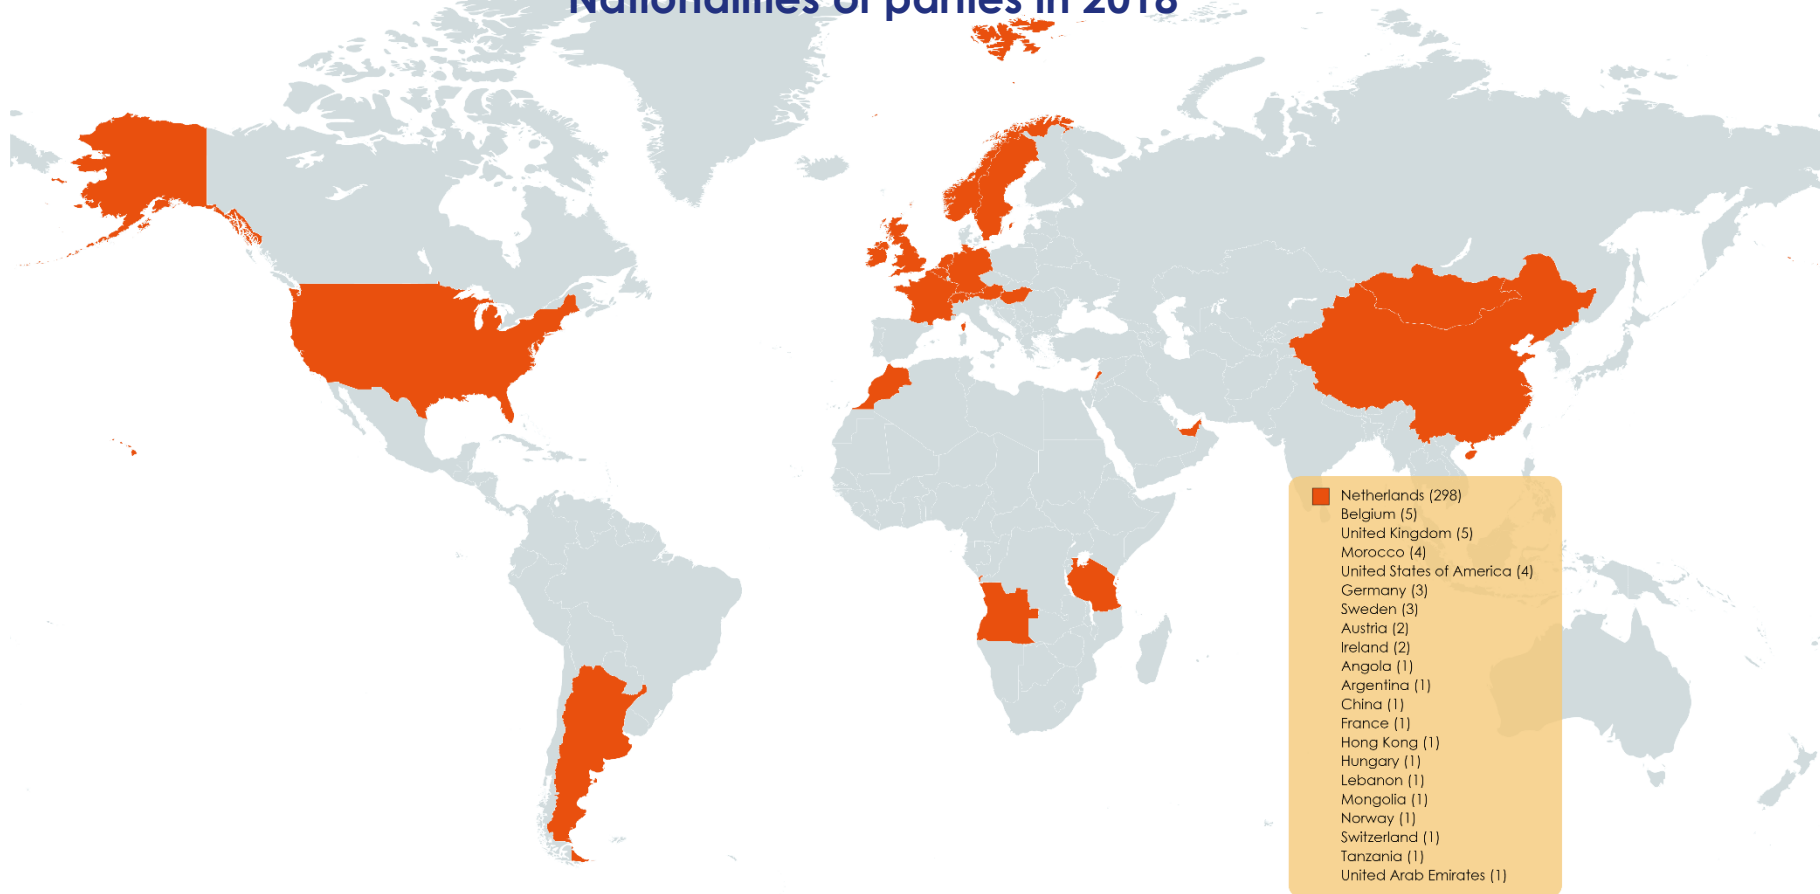

■ Arbitration ■ Summary Arbitral Proceedings ■ Binding Advice ■ Mediation ■ Ad hoc ■ Other

*new cases only

In the types of procedures, it should be noted that the NAI's summary arbitral proceedings are second in frequency behind regular arbitration proceedings. This highlights the added value that the summary arbitral proceedings offer to parties choosing the NAI Rules.

Nationalities of parties in 2018

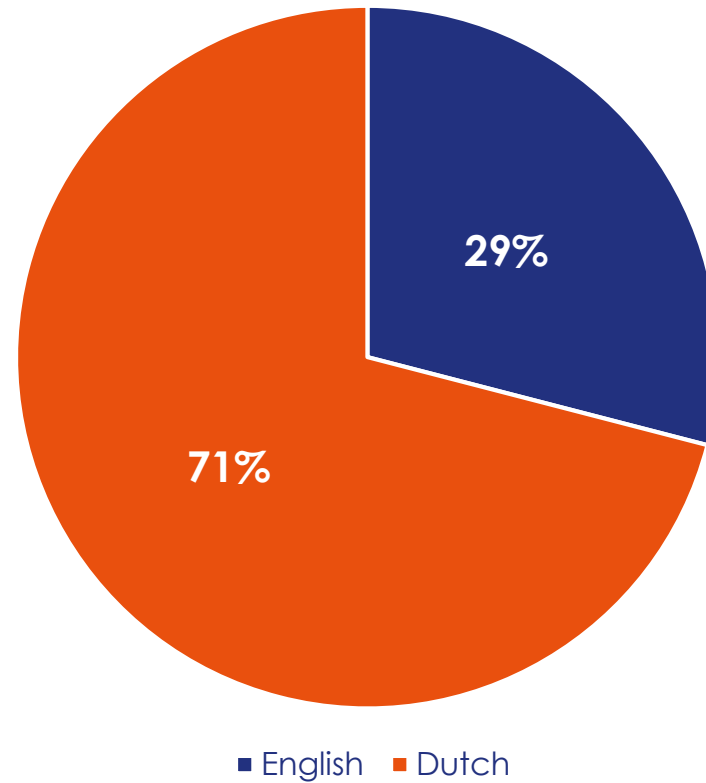

Crafted with mapchart.net

*new cases only

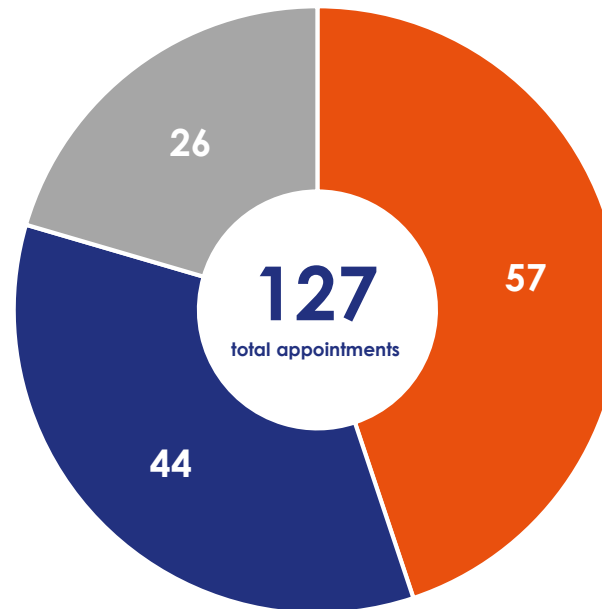

The nationalities of the parties shows the added value of the NAI Rules not only for parties based in the Netherlands but also for parties based abroad.

Language of arbitrations in 2018

*new cases only

Method of appointment of arbitrators in 2018

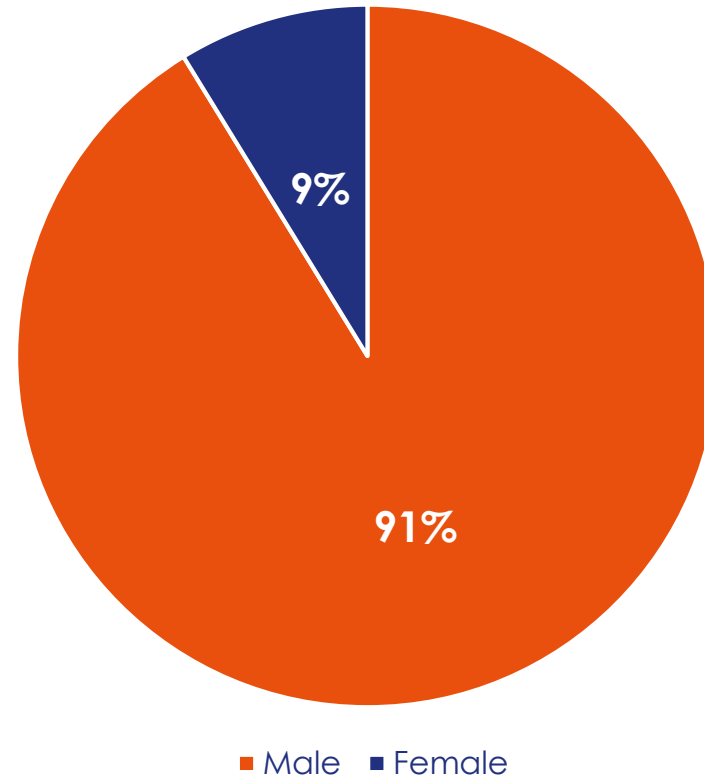

- Appointed by the parties / co-arbitrators
- List procedure
- Appointed by the NAI

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2018

The majority of appointments of arbitrators in 2018 were by the parties and co-arbitrators directly (45%), however, a sizable number of arbitrators were appointed through the NAI's unique list procedure (35%), and directly by the NAI (20%).

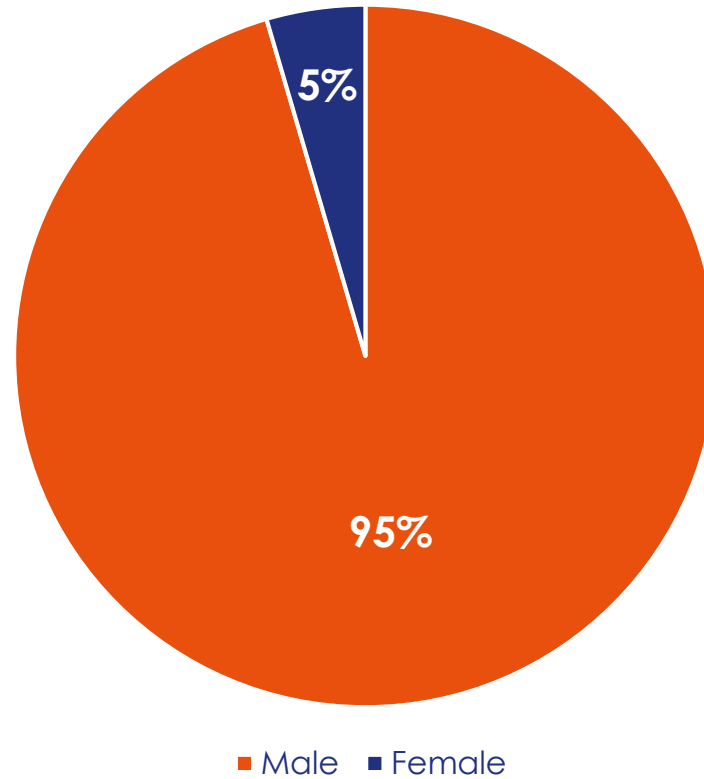

Gender of arbitrators appointed by the parties / co-arbitrators in 2018

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2018

see also, the charts on appointments through the list procedure and direct appointments by the NAI

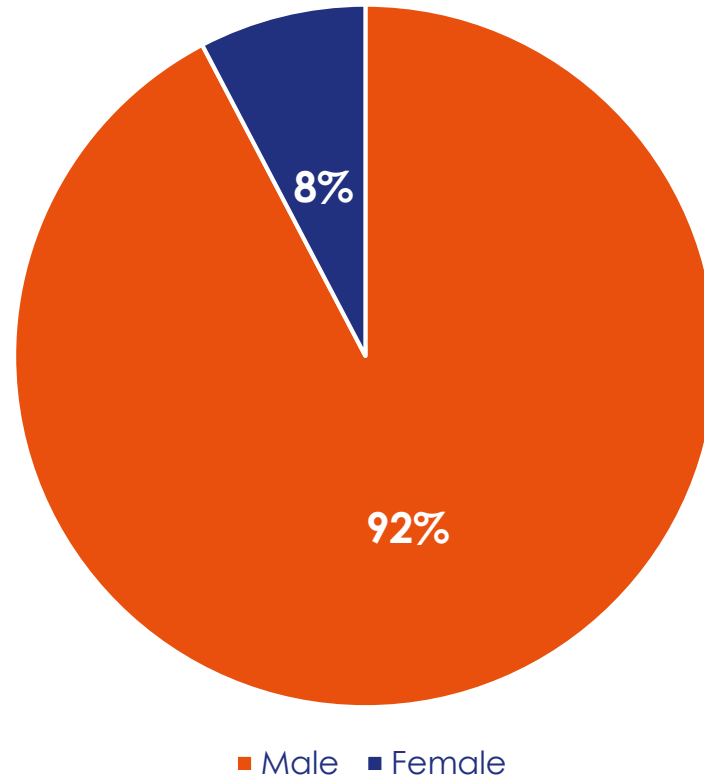

Gender of arbitrators appointed through the list procedure in 2018

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2018

see also, the charts on appointments by the parties / co-arbitrators and direct appointments by the NAI

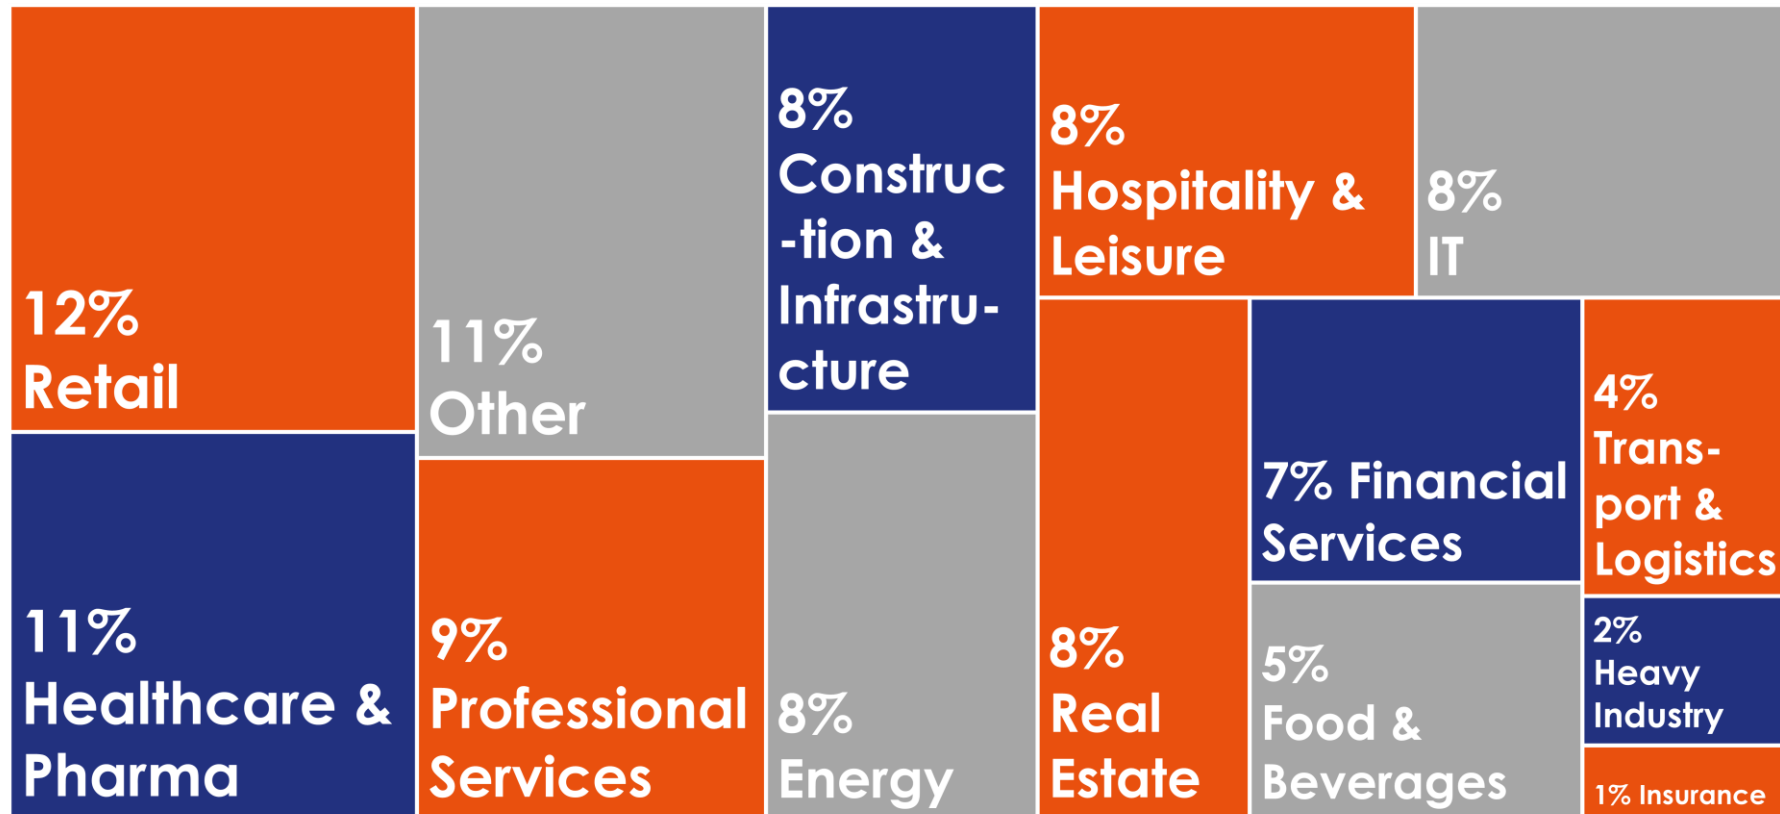

Gender of arbitrators appointed directly by the NAI in 2018

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2018

see also, the charts on appointments by the parties / co-arbitrators and through the list procedure

Sectors in 2018

*new cases only

The diversity in the sectors of disputes commenced in 2018 highlights the NAI's position as the largest general arbitration institute in the Netherlands. It also highlights the breadth and depth of the NAI's arbitrator pool, who are able to apply their expertise in a diverse range of disputes.